☆ Untitled ☆

Welcome to the 2003 yearbook; a compilation of the moments, memories and magic of our years at high school. Throughout the years, we have grown and matured, lived and learned and begun to make our mark on the world. The scenes of our lives are like those from a movie; full of action, love, drama, beauty, comedy, and life.

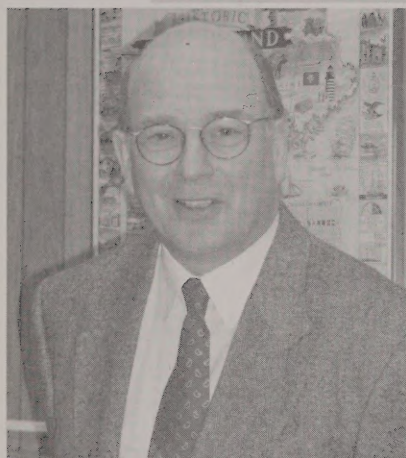

The moments we shared have found ways to move us much like the lines of a poem or the lyrics of a song. Our lives are like unique pieces of art, each having its individual meaning and purpose. The mural that we have created has so many different hues and dimensions that there is not one title that would give justice to its meaning. Therefore, we could not bring ourselves to label our mural, our work of art, our "Untitled."

Superintendent's Message

Mr. Roy Belson
Superintendent,
Medford Public Schools

Among the unalienable rights identified in the Declaration of Independence, "the pursuit of happiness" is the most open-minded and elusive. Government cannot guarantee it and contemporary society creates limitless desires that obstruct its attainment. High School diplomas and advanced degrees cannot confer it. Without it, even the greatest accomplishments will never bring you fulfillment. Therefore, no education at any level is complete until you have committed yourself to its legitimate pursuit. As the great Roman Emperor and Philosopher Marcus Aurelius wrote, "Very little is needed to make a happy life. It is all within yourself...in your own way of thinking..." Still, despite the Aurelian revelation, too many otherwise worthy individuals never achieve "real" happiness.

Do not confuse happiness with the acquisition of material possessions or creature comforts. The popular witticism, "The person that has the most toys when he/she dies wins," is a falsehood. You will be confronted with temptations and objects that seem big and irresistible. One minute they are vital and the next they are surpassed by something else. The absurdity of materialism and self-indulgence is obvious but remarkably compelling and addictive. True happiness in life is more dependent upon having interests rather than upon having possessions and comforts. The happiest people don't always have the best of everything; instead they make the best of everything. You do not achieve happiness at the end of the road, but rather along the way. At the end of the day, take a few quiet moments to reflect and recall a high point. Dare to dream; keep your hopes alive; and incorporate humor and laughter. Don't let the little matters keep you down. The human mind can endure a heavy load of reality, but very little gloom and doom. Don't starve your spirit by concentrating solely on the wants of your body. Strike a healthy balance. The reward will be substantial. Author Robert Louis Stevenson wrote, "The habit of being happy enables one to be freed, or largely freed from the domination of outward conditions."

As you graduate, please accept my congratulations for your achievement and my best wishes for a life of true happiness. Remember, the world always looks brighter from behind a smile.

Medford High School Headmaster's Message

Paul H. Krueger, Ed. D.
Headmaster,
Medford High School

Like other graduating classes at Medford High School, the class of 2003 has shown a distinct personality and has demonstrated a variety of strengths. What makes your class special, however, is the series of contributions you have made to your school and their impact on the Medford community as a whole.

The MHS Boy's Soccer Team, and its senior players in particular, earned the admiration of the Medford community and the envy of athletes across the state, not only for the athletic prowess and teamwork that earned them success in the state championship, but more importantly for the sense of responsibility and maturity that garnered for Medford High School the Division I Sportsmanship Award.

In addition, the performance of the Class of 2003 on MCAS also evoked feelings of great pride among your teachers, parents and Medford residents. Overall, with scores continuing to rise, Medford High School and the Vocational School haven't simply met the goals set for them by and state governments; they have surpassed those expectations and received "above target" ratings. At the Vocational School, the Class of 2003 made such a dramatic improvement over previous classes that the school was honored with the prestigious Edgerly Award.

Finally, the leadership of this year's senior class helped ensure a positive accreditation report for Medford High School. Applauding the "comfortable and respectful relations between students and teachers," the accreditation report noted that students "amicably greet their classmates in the hallways during passing time and in the cafeteria" and "were polite when approached by members of the visiting committee." On the last day of the visitation, the chair of the visiting team announced at a faculty meeting: "Your students are terrific. They're well behaved and polite. They are the crown jewels of Medford High School." The Medford community, as well as your teachers and administrators, were thrilled that the visiting team, during such a short stay, noticed what we've known since you arrived at MHS in the fall of 1999.

Congratulations on all that you have accomplished over the past four years, and best wishes for a future filled with good health, good friends, and good fortune.

MTVHS Director's Message

"A man does what he must in spite of personal consequences, in spite of obstacles, and dangers and pressures - and that is the basis of all human morality."

- John F. Kennedy

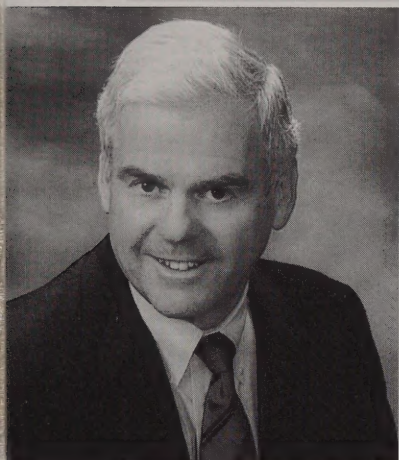

These words of our thirty-fifth president of the United States rang so true as the school year began in the fall, especially as the graduating class struggled with the mandatory MCAS requirements in addition to the numerous issues the typical teenager has to face each day.

The first challenge was to pass the state-mandated MCAS test in order to receive that coveted high school diploma. The test served as one of the rallying points for students and staff alike at Medford Vocational High School. This would-be barrier became an opportunity for this spirited class to surpass and prove their mettle, in addition to forging feelings of unity and accomplishment amongst staff and students. I am proud to state that the Class of 2003 was recognized for its efforts as one of the most improved MCAS scores throughout the state of Massachusetts. This achievement was a great source of pride for the future endeavors of not only the Class of 2003, but also each graduating vocational class.

In addition to conquering the MCAS test, this class also had to endure the tragic loss of three much-loved students: Phillip Gagliardi, Filipe Sampio, and Joshua Prince. These losses struck deep at the hearts of the student body, faculty, and staff this past year. The loss of these individuals, within days of each other, created a void that we will all feel for the remainder of our lives.

These losses and our pain became the second challenge, which was to simply carry on and pull together; to complete the education already begun; to hold closer to the friends remaining; to continue living and learning because anything less would be a disservice to those we had lost. Our memories and our lessons both good and bad have helped serve, mold, and shape the character of the Class of 2003. It is this character and perseverance that have helped you as a class of individuals surpass what barriers were presented to you, be it an academic achievement or a tragic loss.

To the Class of 2003, MVTHS will be forever grateful for your efforts in bravely facing all that life dealt you over these precious four years. The strength and courage, which you exhibited, can only serve to assist you in the future and to enrich your communities. The lessons learned during these four years should enable you to act as role models for your community in years to come.

Mr. William C. Mahoney
Director,
Medford Vocational-
Technical High School

Class of 2003 Submaster's Message

There are times to cherish in everyone's life, and your high school graduation is one of the most memorable of those moments. More than milestones like a birthday on the timeline of your existence; your graduation is palpable evidence of your passage from childhood to becoming young adults. It marks for new, old, and diverse friends the culmination of a shared dream; a high school education, a privilege afforded by this great country to all those willing to work and sacrifice for it, as you have done.

It was a time of momentous change for all of us, from the tragedies which befell our country at the hands of terrorists to the terrible losses of young lives suffered within our own community. It has been a time when many of you too quickly lost the innocence of your youth through circumstances beyond your control. It was a time when great technological advances, homework researched by the internet, the creation of a new (often secret) language via text messaging, cell phones that are also cameras (the perfect tool to embarrass your friends), and automobiles linked to satellites became commonplace. The world virtually went digital in your short time on the planet. Your time here at Medford High has seen exhilarating and discomfiting change of global proportions.

And yet it is your time, the twenty-first century; an era for your generation to explore, shape, and master. A new millennium to mold for the generations to follow you. I envy you and the journey you are about to embark upon. Be safe.

Ms. Rosemary Trainor
Submaster,
Medford High School

Dedication

Mary Scalese

I would like to tell you a little bit about someone special to the Class of 2003 and to the entire Medford High School community.

She was our friend and a surrogate mother during the time we spent with her, until this year when we unfortunately lost her: Mrs. Mary Scalese.

Mrs. Scalese's door was always open to those who needed a problem solved, a phone call to be made, or just an ear to listen. Walking through her door, you were always greeted with a warm smile and you knew Mrs. Scalese genuinely cared about you. The first thing you saw on her office wall was a poster that read, "I try to assist one person every day, and today isn't your day, and tomorrow isn't looking good either." However, that wasn't the case with Mrs. Scalese; she was willing to help everyone. It was not unusual to find many students lingering around her desk at any given time.

Upon our return to school in September of 2001, we were saddened to learn that Mrs. Scalese was very sick. With each week that passed, we began to see less and less of her and we realized how significant a role she played in our everyday lives.

Her passing had a great effect on the school, and most especially her students. She is greatly missed, and will always be remembered.

Our thoughts, prayers, and deepest sympathy go to the family of Mrs. Scalese: her husband Tony, and her children Marc and Andrew.

Thinking of Mrs. Scalese, these words come to mind:

"Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some stay for a while, leave footprints in our hearts, and we are never, ever the same."

AS GOOD AS IT GETS

If we forget about homework and MCAS and essays and tests, high school has the potential to be the best time of our lives. Whether it's going to a party or just goofing off in class, we all know how important it is to have fun. So when you're on that road trip or eating your millionth school lunch, just keep in mind that this is as good as it gets!

Students take time to be a little silly!

Everyone has their moments of being silly and goofy. Being with your friends and being funny just makes it so much better. You always want to be more silly than the person next to you. It's okay to be goofy and act stupid every once in a while. First we strive to be dumb; then we strive to be dumber!

Road Trip!

MHS Students Take to the Road!

As much as we, the students of MHS, value the time we spend in school, we also treasure the time that is spent outside of the classroom. Weekends and vacations are chances for us to escape stressful school life and spend time with friends, family, or doing absolutely anything we please.

For those of us who have the privilege of having a license and owning a car, we find that we have more freedom and fun than ever before. Most of us take pride in this freedom. We go places, travel, take road trips -- all while creating lasting memories with friends... memories that will stay with us forever, no matter what road of life we travel.

No matter how bitter cold, the stands at the Medford-Malden game are always jam packed with fans. All of Medford came out to watch this traditional Thanksgiving game between these two long-time rivals. Under the leadership of twelve seniors, the Mustangs fought hard and strong and although they did their best, Malden came through in the end to break our 8-year winning streak. The Mustang's turkey may not have toasted as well this year, but we can all be sure that Medford will come back next year to begin a new streak.

Brave New World

Curtis-Tufts Alternative High School

Serving as a brave new world for some students in the Medford Public School system, the Curtis/Tufts School is an alternative high school program that provides hope for students that can't succeed in a regular mainstream high school. The goals of the school are to help students acquire an education, to grow emotionally and socially, to improve their self-esteem and to leave the program with confidence for independent, productive, healthy and safe living.

The Importance of Being Earnest

The Importance of Being Earnest by Oscar Wilde was the Drama Club's 2002 Fall Play, running from November 14-16. The story revolves around main characters Jack (Dave Chardo) and Algy (John Valdez), best friends who end up leading double lives in order to woo the girls of their dreams, Gwendolen (Ashley Griffin) and Cecily (Chloe Reison). Their only obstacle seems to be the snooty Lady Bracknell (Carolyn Cronin), obsessed with high society. Other crazy characters like the demure Ms. Prism (Rachel Andelman), her love interest the Reverend Chasuble (Bernie Faucher), and a slew of comical servants add to the mix as the plot thickens.

Under the direction of Mr. Bowen-Flynn and Mr. Blauch, all the actors were able to execute their roles well, which resulted in a great performance. Dramatic lighting and intricate sets were provided by the hard-working technical crew, headed by stage manager Jamie Howard. With the support of many faculty, parents, and students, the show was a success and enjoyable to both the audience and the performers.

The Drama Club's 2003 Spring Musical Production Took Us Over the Rainbow!

The Drama Club brought Medford to the enchanted world of Oz in April 2002 with William F. Brown and Charlie Smalls' musical The Wiz. The familiar tale of Dorothy (Stephanie Carroll), the Scarecrow (Kevin Braxton), the Tinman (John Valdez), and the Lion (Dave Chardo) was retold with a funky new score, including "Ease On Down the Road," "Believe," and "Home." The four friends grooved with the yellow brick road on their way to meet the Wiz (Raye Kennedy) and defeat the Wicked Witch of the West Evilline (Susan Brash) - all with the aid of two Good Witches, Addaperle (Carolyn Cronin) and Glinda (Ashley Griffin). During the long and exciting journey, the four friends realize they have always held what they most desired within themselves. The Scarecrow gets his brains, the Tinman his heart, the Lion his courage, and of course Dorothy is reunited with her loving Aunt Em (Soonia Loum).

With a strong supporting ensemble of more than 30 performers, a hard-working backstage crew headed by stage manager Jamie Howard, and help from many faculty and parents, The Wiz was one of the most successful Medford High School musicals in years! Under the direction of new teacher Johnny Woodnal, the cast learned to reach its potential in new and exciting ways, proving that MHS has some of the best performers around!

CLASS OF 2003
FRESHMAN & SOPHOMORE YEARS

WHEN WE FIRST CAME TO THIS SCHOOL
WE WERE SCARED AND IMMATURE. THE
HIGH SCHOOL SEEMED SO BIG. WE LEARNED AND GREW AND BECAME A PART OF

One Step Closer

Class of 2003 Junior Year

Junior year was unforgettable, but it brought us One Step Closer to our senior year. Under the pressure of doing well in school and the burden of SATs, many of us found ourselves overwhelmed with everything going on around us. As the year began, nobody imagined that it would be a year of continuous school work, projects, and essays. However, we soon realized the importance of them all. We learned that we needed to be serious, buckle down, and make school our top priority. It wasn't easy; however, we did not give up! From those of us struggling with MCAS makeup to those those beginning the college search, we handled anything that came our way with maturity and confidence.

Although school was on the top of our "to do" list, we had other priorities as well. Junior year became an important time for friendships also. Weekends were times we could escape stressful school life and focus on having fun with our friends. We shared laughs, went to parties, and made the most of our free time with true friends. And above all, we made lasting memories that will stay with us for a lifetime in this year that took us One Step Closer to our futures!

SEASON FINALE

CLASS OF 2003 SENIOR YEAR

The past four years have been spent in classes, taking countless tests, writing essays, gossiping in the halls, making new friends and new enemies, cheering for the team, stalling homework, relaxing, and hitting up parties with friends. Life at Medford High can be seen as one big documentary which we have created for ourselves. Something is always happening, and everyone always knows about it. This year -- senior year -- is the Season Finale of our four year running show. This year is when we look back and remember everything and anything that distinguished us as the Class of 2003; this is where the footage comes to an end for our cast and continues with another. After this year, it's all about rewinding and remembering our favorite episodes. Although we are confronted with decisions about which road to take, we are all looking forward to sitting back and enjoying ourselves while sharing memories and creating new ones.

Take a Bow

Over the course of four years, we have grown through our experiences at Medford High School. We are a class of talent, diversity, and pride.

Class of 2003, take a bow.

~ Susan Barber

Class of 2003 President

It's finally here -- graduation time!
We made it through all four years and survived. This is our time to shine in the spotlight.
Congratulate yourselves on your success.
Pat yourselves on the back and take your final bow.

Through freshman year,
we were the babies;
sophomore year we were still known as "under-

was this year -- junior most stressful year of our

Growing Pains

The Class of 2005 is made up of many different and interesting people who, together, make up the amazing class we are. Even though this is our second year at Medford High School, and we feel like we've grown up somewhat, we still are technically underclassmen, and we know that we have a long road ahead of us.

Class of 2005 President

Marysa Ingersoll

Older than the Freshmen and not quite old enough to be upperclassmen, Sophomores are stuck in the middle of the high school hierarchy. As we grow older and more mature, we look back at our younger years, and look forward to the years to come. We are getting ready to face the growing pains that are impending, and loving every minute of it!

The Young & the Restless

We made it to high school! Even though we didn't get as many advantages as the upperclasses, we made the best of this year. And if there is one thing that this class represents, it is respect -- respect for the school and respect for each other.

Alex Downes &

Robert Martinello

Class of 2006 Co-Presidents

High school is the beginning of the best time of our lives. We have been bombarded by new experiences this year, and we can't wait until next year. This is the dramatic beginning to the rest of our lives. We are the young and the restless. We are the Freshman class!

African Culture Club

The Medford High School African Culture Club is a student-centered organization that seeks to support students of color at Medford High through academic, cultural, and social activities. ## Yearbook Staff

The 2002-2003 Yearbook Staff had a wonderful time putting together your yearbook. Since this year's theme uses entertainment titles from songs, movies, television shows and more to describe our lives at Medford High School, the staff has selected a few titles to represent their efforts in creating the yearbook.

Yearbook Editors

JAMIE HOWARD

"The world's a rollercoaster, and I am not strapped in. Maybe I should hold with care, but my hands are in busy in the air."

--Incubus

Even though life can be scary, it's important that you remember to enjoy the ride. Yearbook was scary at first, but I have enjoyed the ride, and I hope you enjoy the end product.

CHRISTINA SALVATO

"Another turning point, a fork stuck in the road. Time grabs you by the wrist, directs you where to go. It's something unpredictable, but in the end is right...I hope you had the time of your life."

-- Green Day

Making the yearbook was a flashback of memories of the past four years and a realization of how fast the time went by. Now we're about to start over again and we don't know what's going to happen. But I know I've had a good time and throughout good and bad, it's definitely been worth it. The yearbook is our way to return to those memories.

Yearbook Advisor

JOHNNY WOODNAL

"If the apocalypse comes, beep me..."
-- Buffy the Vampire Slayer

My first year as yearbook advisor was stressful but fun. It may have felt like the apocalypse sometimes, but my incredibly staff always saved me. Because of them, the yearbook is truly amazing and we averted disaster!

Yearbook Staff

MICHELLE ANGLIN

"As we go on, we'll remember all the times we spent together. And as our lives change, come whatever, we will still be friends forever."

--Vitamin C

Creating the yearbook and thinking about all the good memories I have from my two years at MHS has made me realize what great friends I have made and how important they are to me...I know I can always count on them and come whatever we will always be friends forever

HEATHER CABRAL

"Times I've been fed up, still didn't let up, 'stead of doing dirt, did work and kept my head up, set up for the future."

-Will Smith

Yearbook was a great experience. Sometimes it was hard, but I never gave up. The end product has made all the work worthwhile. I'll never forget my time here at MHS.

ASHLEY CULLINANE

"It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday..."

-- Boys II Men

As we finished up the yearbook, our hard work had definitely paid off but we realized it's so hard to say goodbye.

Yearbook Staff

VANESSA DIOGUARDI

"Life goes on..."

-- Tupac Shakur

This was a hard year with a lot of deadlines, but when the yearbook was finally done, I realized that life goes on and everyone will love the yearbook.

MELISSA GRIFFIN

"So sorry to interrupt...proceed."

--Billy Madison

Working on the yearbook meant interrupting techers and students to ask for pictures and quotes and, I'm sorry...

DINO SIJAMIC

"Peanut butter jelly time!"

-- The dancing bannana

Working on the yearbook has brought unparalleled happiness to my life.

AMANDA VINING

"Here's to goodbye...Tomorrow's gonna come too soon..."

-Eve 6

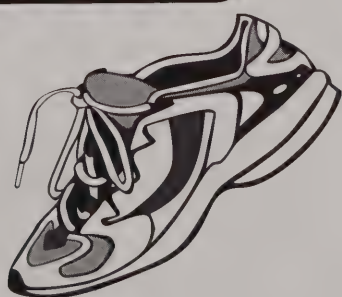

Yearbook has shown me how fast the year can go by and how valuable our time is together.

A decorative border surrounds the central text. It features ten stylized suns with spiky rays, each with a unique facial expression: a wide smile, a face with glasses, a winking smile, a sad face, a happy face, a face with glasses, a surprised face, a sad face, a happy face, and a face with glasses. Interspersed among the suns are several simple black silhouettes of birds in flight. The background of the border includes soft, grey clouds.

2002 Season

The record truly does not tell the story of the Mustang Football season in 2002. This team, led by a strong group of seniors, fought throughout the season against possibly the toughest schedule in the state. In a sport where the outcome of a game usually depends upon size and speed, the Mustang's heart and toughness were often overshadowed by losses. But within this season there were many bright spots. Senior Mike DiMeo and juniors Julien Mundele and Chris Bosak were all chosen for first team all-league team, while senior captains Eric Tucci, Ryan Ward, and Alan Arruda, junior Chris Richard, and sophomore Gerald Murphy were selected to the second team. In addition, many other younger players participated and played well within the program. With a little luck, these seniors should be looking back in a few years and viewing themselves as the team that started the turnaround of Medford High School Football.

Girls Cross Country

The Lady Mustang Cross Country team ran away with a great season this year! They finished off with a record of 6-2 in the Greater Boston League and finished third in the league overall. Team captains Angie Catricala, Caitlin Casey, and Susan Barber all motivated the team and set high standards. But they couldn't have done it without the help of coaches Lou Ruggiero and Tom Lynch, both of whom always pushed them to their limits and made all the Lady Mustangs strive for their best.

Boys Cross Country

The boys finished with a 5-3 record and placed third in the Greater Boston League. Captains Jim Gallant (GBL All-Star) and T.J. Scanlon led the team to their impressive 5-3 season with the help of other seniors Brian McCue and Peter Amara. All members of the team exhibited the very essence of teamwork. The most memorable moment was on October 8, when the team upset both Somerville and Revere, beating them decisively. The GBL Championship was another time for the Mustangs to shine. Despite adverse weather conditions, the team performed admirably, receiving great efforts from all runners. Cross Country is a very difficult sport and it takes the determination of every member to make or break the team. In the case of this team, their will to achieve greatness was a lingering factor that lifted them to the top ranks of the GBL. A large part of the 2002 season can be attributed to the great coaching efforts of Lou Ruggiero and Tom Lynch.

Basketball

The Lady Mustangs started the season with a one-point win against Arlington. That was when Head Coach Robert Maloney and Assistant Coaches Frederick Pizzi, Michael Bourne, and Brian Sacco knew it was going to be the kind of season that put your heart in your throat. Leading the Lady Mustang were senior captains Justine McDonald and Laura Shine with junior captain Akilah King. Although the team lost a few players half way through the season, the team remained strong and stuck it out for the remaining games. The Lady Mustangs were a very close team who would fight to the very end for one another. Their determination and love for the game showed when they were on the court. Michael Jordan once said, "I can accept failure, but I can't accept not trying." Anyone will agree that although the Lady Mustangs lost a number of games, they tried their hardest to out-hustle each team they faced, and they never gave up.

Contrary to what most people may think, the swim team is no joke. Yeah, swimming laps, how hard can that be? Only those who have participated on the MHS swim team truly understand that swimming is one of the most demanding sports. Led by tough and ambitious coaches Mary Judge and Mary Hoarty, everyday practice includes a one mile run outside, deck calisthenics, and a hardcore pool workout. Although the team's record does not reflect its talents, working this hard has substantially helped them to greatly improve their individual times, build endurance, and perfect their stroke techniques with each meet. Led by Seniors Amber Nevers, Christina Salvato, Casey Halford, Kevin Bailey, Kristen Iandosca, Jeanine Feeley, and Nichole Faggiano, the 2002-2003 swim team is building potential for the future with a wide range of talent in many events. With one win against Revere and extremely close scores against Arlington, Peabody and Everett, the Mustangs have even surprised themselves with their improvement. The swimmers have enjoyed the season by celebrating with team dinners and water aerobics days. Teamwork is key, and as long as the Mustangs stick together in and out of the pool, they'll do just fine.

Led by coaches Josie Penza and Paul D'Alleva, the girls have made significant improvements all season. In four out six meets, the girls broke 100 points, which hasn't been accomplished in five years! These girls have a lot to be proud of and to look forward to!

The girls tennis team at MHS worked really hard to make the best out of their short but sweet season. The team was made up of several dedicated tennis fanatics, led by their two captains Jamie Howard and Priscilla Vieira, and their coach Ellie O'Leary. The girls played every match as if it were their last, and they are very sad to see the seniors leave. The seniors, however, are proud to leave the team to such a talented group.

The Wonder Years

The wonder years of our lives, a time when we were unaware of the real world, the road we were about to take, and a skinned knee was a tragedy. At this time, our parents were our original teachers holding our hand throughout the way. Now that we've made it this far, our parents are given the opportunity to send their love & praise. Within the Wonder Years is also the special moments captured within the student purchased pages made by the students themselves. And what would T.V. be if it didn't have the numerous commercial breaks? Thanks to many generous businesses, we were able to provide you with this feature presentation.

OH! THE PLACES YOU'LL GO!

You'll be on your way up!
You'll be seeing great sights!
You'll join the high fliers who soar to high heights.

You won't lag behind, because you'll have the speed. You'll pass the whole gang and you'll soon take the lead.
Wherever you fly, you'll be best of the best.
Wherever you go, you will top all the rest.
